TEN CENTS A WEEK

FOUR DEAD AS RESULT OF WRECK

Passenger and Freight on Michigan Central in a Head-on Collision

TWELVE ARE INJURED

Smoking Car Telescoped
Over Baggage and Three Hours and Fifty Minutes
Elapsed Before First Victim Was Removed.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Jackson, Mich., Jan. 26.—Four persons are dead and a dozen injured, some perhaps fatally, as the result of the head-on collision last night between a passenger train and a freight train on the Saginaw division of the Michigan Central railroad, three miles north of here. A misunderstanding of orders is believed to have been responsible for the accident. The dead: Cal Johnson, Jackson engineer on passenger train, and the following passengers:

E. S. Cochran, Lansing, Mich.
Thomas J. Scroggie, Owosso, Mich.
J. B. Beck of Jackson, Mich.
The seriously injured are:
Jefferson Davis, St. Charles, Mich.; will probably recover.
James B. Chaney, Highland Park, Detroit; recovery expected.
Arthur Birdsall, Jackson, baggage-man on passenger train; recovery doubtful.

Although a relief train was promptly rushed from this city to the scene of the accident, it was three hours and fifty minutes after the crash when the first victim was removed from the wreckage. So great was the force of the collision that the smoking car was telescoped over the baggage car, one car completely enveloping the other. The cries of the mangled and helpless victims within the car were plainly heard by the rescuers long before a relief corps was able to penetrate the twisted and jammed wreckage and render assistance.

Until the debris was cleared away it was impossible to tell how many persons met death in the collision.

The passenger train, running on schedule time, was on its way from Saginaw to this city. A northbound freight which, it is declared, should have taken a siding to allow the passenger to pass, ran beyond the switch and the two trains, going at a good rate of speed, met head-on. The smoking car, in which most of the casualties occurred, was completely incased inside the walls of the baggage car, thus rendering the work of removing the dead and injured extremely difficult. Both engines and several freight cars also were demolished.

A wrecking crew and doctors were sent from this city but it took hours to extricate the living and the dead from the broken mass of wood and steel.

Cal Johnson of Jackson, engineer of the passenger train, was crushed to death between the tender and his cab. His fireman was hurled from the engine by the impact, but received only minor injuries. The other members of the engine crews jumped before the crash. The identity of the others killed could not be learned until long after the accident occurred.

Among the injured were M. E. Sherwood, master mechanic of the Michigan Central of Jackson, and his wife. Their injuries were not serious.

Home of Edward Beardsley, New York Farmer,
Who Held Off Posse for More Than a Week

This is the home of Edward Beardsley, a New York State farmer, near Jamestown, who for more than a week held off the sheriff of the county and all the citizens he could arm. Beardsley was a character of the county, who had nine children in his household, the mothers of whom were believed to be two sisters who lived in his house. After shooting the overseer of the poor, who went to the house to remonstrate about the care given the children, Beardsley barricaded himself and announced he would not be taken alive. He had the children in view of the besieging posse, so the members of it knew if they tried to take the home by assault they would likely kill or wound several of them. But a hotelkeeper, with whom Beardsley was acquainted, walked into the house and had a talk with the man, who who kept him covered for hours. When Beardsley placed his weapons on a table the hotel man grasped the guns, and then very easily captured the outlaw, who was locked up in jail.

"Interesting Fiction" Says President of Rumors that Marines Will Land in Mexico

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Jan. 26.—President Wilson today characterized as "interesting fiction" published reports that orders had been sent to Rear Admiral Fletcher to land marines at Vera Cruz and keep open the road to Mexico City in case the Huerta administration collapsed. Information from the White House view of the situation in Mexico is slowly changing and the Huerta government is undergoing a "natural decay." There is no particular development or critical situation in the Mexican problem or any other foreign question, the president explained today which has prompted him to call the senate foreign relations committee into conference tonight. A general consultation on foreign affairs was the reason for the meeting, the president making it plain that although he had tried to keep in touch with the committee heretofore, he would now be able to give a rather systematic attention to foreign relations. The president has a memorandum for tonight's conference.

URGES TAKING OF PATRONAGE FROM THE CONGRESSMAN

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Jan. 26.—Federal appointments was the subject to a speech in the Senate today by Senator Works of California, on his bill to provide for a commission appointed by the president to receive and pass upon all applications and recommendations for appointment to federal offices. The measure would forbid members of congress to recommend applicants or aid in obtaining positions. Senator Works explained that his bill was intended to relieve the president and members of congress from the burden of recommending and appointing the thousands of officers throughout the country; to bring about the appointment of more competent men and women, and to relieve the public service as far as possible from the "odious of the present pernicious system of patronage."

The time taken up by the president and members of congress in considering matters of patronage, he said, was enormous and could be devoted to more important public service.

From figures given to the Senate in compliance with a resolution of December, 1910, the Senator showed that total number of officers and employees of the government at that time, exclusive of the appointments made under civil service and officers of the army and navy to be 148,714, of whom 13,839 are appointed by the president. These appointments he said, had steadily increased since the time of that report, the number of postmasters to be appointed by the president having been increased by 453.

President Wilson at the beginning of his administration, he said, had felt the necessity of some such help as this bill would afford but his effort to transfer to his hands of departments the duty of making appointments had proved a failure.

CHICAGO WOMEN WOULD SERVE ON CITY COUNCIL

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Four other women are expected to file petitions to enter the primaries.

THIRD DEGREE "GHOST"

A Myth Originating in the Brain of Drug User
Says Attorney

ACCUSED OF UXORICIDE

Claimed to Have Poisoned Wife and Attempted to Establish a Claim of Suicide "Other Woman" Fights in Case.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 26.—Denial of charges by attorneys for John H. Grondin, accused of having murdered his wife, Della, that the police had used the third degree with a ghost" as the central figure in an attempt to extort a confession, was made by the district attorney's office today.

According to W. F. Shannon, deputy district attorney, Grondin is a drug user and on occasions becomes delirious. Shannon declared that the "ghost" which according to Grondin's attorneys appeared in a darkened room where the police had taken the prisoner and demanded in gloomy tones "why did you murder me?" was a product of the drug user's imagination.

Grondin is charged with having poisoned his wife here last October and then attempted to establish that she killed herself by inhaling gas. Police say he formed a not explaining his wife's alleged suicide, the note containing an admission of infidelity and the hope that he would be happy with the "woman who truly loved him."

County officials said a widow of Waterville, Maine, is the "other woman" in whom Grondin was interested.

Neil Kelleher, a state senator of Maine who was mentioned in the so-called suicide letter, telegraphed today that he would come here to testify against Grondin. The letter suggested Kelleher had been infatuated with Mrs. Grondin. The dead woman was the daughter of George Davaud, a druggist of Waterville, Maine, where she married Grondin when he was 21 years old.

DIES AT AGE OF 112 YEARS AT INFIRMARY

Jacob Woodruff, said to be past 112 years old, and known to be well past the century milestone of his life, 44 years of which have been spent in the county infirmary, died Monday morning. His death was due to old age, there being no apparent disease. He has been an invalid and an imbecile for several years past.

The passing of Woodruff removes from the institution one of the curiosities which attracted the attention of visitors for many years. The records of the institution show that Woodruff was admitted Sept. 1, 1869 and that at that time he was 69 years old. Other than these facts, nothing is known at the institution regarding this strange individual.

For several years he has been suffering from senile debility and his mental condition was such that he could not be allowed in the same quarters with the other inmates. He kept to his bed most of the time and resisted all efforts to show him the kindly attentions which were enjoyed by the other county wards.

Brief funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock and a little part of the inmates slowly followed the bier to the infirmary burial ground where the body was lowered to its last resting place.

Though Woodruff lived in the most wonderful age the world has yet known, he died ignorant of many of the late discoveries and inventions, such as automobiles, aeroplanes, wireless telegraphy, etc., as his weakened mind during the last decade of his life was unable to grasp the meaning of these things.

NOT TO ABOLISH THE RELIC ROOM AT STATE HOUSE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Jan. 26.—Visitors to the state house will still have a chance to visit the historic relic room, after the legislature adjourns, in spite of the recommendation by Budget Commissioner Hoffman that it be abolished and relics of state removed to the rotunda and dome. The house finance committee has decided not to follow this suggestion of the budget commissioner, it was announced today. The state library also will not be disbanded and its circulation and general reference departments removed to the Ohio State University library, as the commissioner recommended.

LEGAL TALENT ADVICE

Sought by Members of House Before Accepting Other Employment

WITNESSES SUMMONED

To Testify Before the Special Investigating Committee at Columbus—The Bankers of Ohio to Visit Capital.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, O., Jan. 26.—Preliminary details for the formal opening this afternoon of the investigation by a special committee of house members of the legislature into the charge that members of the Hamilton county delegation are holding positions of trust and profit under state departments which are incompatible with their offices as representatives in the legislature were being arranged today. Witnesses were being summoned and papers prepared upon the state of facts involved. All of the members involved in the investigation have expressed their utmost confidence that the House will over rule any contention that they have forfeited their seats by acceptance of the employment they have been engaged in and it is stated that before entering upon the work outside the legislature they were advised by competent legal talent that they were not violating any law.

Attorney General Hogan has not given an official opinion in the matter but it was reported in legislative circles today that the attorney general has advised that no other members of either house be appointed to places of any sort during their terms of service in the legislature.

John Hoffman, one of the Hamilton county members under fire is a prospective candidate for the Democratic nomination for sheriff in his home county. Representative Kramer of Richland county, chairman of the investigating committee said he expected that body to make considerable headway at its first meeting today. A report may be expected by the middle of the week.

Although the original resolution introduced by Representative Dier of Mahoning, provided for an investigation of four members—Representatives Black, and Hoffman, of Hamilton county, and Orrison of Franklin and Warnes of Holmes—the substitute resolution by Representative Guthrie of Marion eliminated all names. Chief interest, it was said, will center around an investigation of these four men. The resolution, however, will permit an investigation of any or all of the members.

Representative Dier, who introduced the original resolution it was said, will be the first witness called. While the committee may call all the witnesses it desires, belief was expressed today by Representative Eiling, a member of the committee that less than two dozen witnesses will be called.

Representative Woodworth of Athens, plans to introduce a bill this week which will provide for county uniformity of textbooks in the public schools. Representative Gilson of Jefferson, last week introduced a bill which would make uniformity state wide. Mr. Woodworth believes that the county authorities should control the textbooks while Mr. Gilson would delegate this power to the state.

The first discussion on the Vanderhoof flood protection bill in the Senate probably will arise from Senator Potting of Summit county who will urge an emergency clause providing that the bill become law immediately after being signed instead of waiting during the referendum period of 90 days. It was stricken out by the House when the bill was passed there.

Senator Potting has prepared a resolution which he expects to introduce in the Senate when it convenes this evening, asking for the appointment of a committee to investigate the needs of making the flood bill emergency legislation. The committee is empowered to investigate the time of floods, particularly in the regions of the Miami valley about Dayton and Hamilton and report to the state. Senator Potting declared today he believes it is a far to pass flood protection legislation and make it wait until after the February and March flood period before becoming effective.

Bankers from Cleveland, Cincinnati and Toledo probably will be called to Columbus to attend a meeting of the House committee on banking tomorrow morning to consider the revised draft of the bill allowing state banks to subscribe for stock in the federal reserve banks. The reserve required of state banks which enter the federal currency system will be reduced to that required of national banks according to their new bill drafted by special counsel, Frank Davis, of the attorney general's department and made public today.

A Nation Wide Triumph.
It was a mighty task—was this $400,000,000 "big ditch" that Uncle Sam is just now completing down in Panama. Just how mighty it was you don't know and will never know unless you take advantage of the opportunity. Lyman H. Howe will offer you at the Auditorium, Tuesday and Friday, Jan. 29, 30. The tremendous struggle against almost superhuman difficulties has continued day by day for years. You have read about it more or less, and yet you are conscious that your conception of its magnitude at best is extremely faint and dim. No matter how much you read, words and figures mean so little. Both are weak when the subject is as prodigious as the Panama Canal. But now comes the opportunity to realize the colossal task in all its magnitude for Howe's film is the only enduring record that covers every important detail in absolutely perfect photography of the most marvelous engineering work in the history of the world. And this will be the first and, at the same time, the last opportunity as it is the only time Mr. Howe will present it. Also it is the biggest feature he has ever offered. Whether it is regarded as a stupendous industrial spectacle or a scientific adventure it is in every inch awe-inspiring and intensely impressive. There are scenes in it of tremendous natural forces working under the direction of legions of mid-set-like men who have harnessed them to their purposes. Mighty implements of steel, with muscles of steam, grapple in the earth and hollow out deep lakes. Mountains fall before a mechanical assault. The earth is split open and a complete hill is blown to pieces by tons of dynamite, otherwise known as "Goethals' fireworks." Two continents are being torn asunder. The whole thing is simply amazing. You witness every essential and spectacular phase of the work for a period of years in as many minutes. Seat sale opens Tuesday.

"Freckles."
The producer of "Freckles," A. G. Delamater, has spared neither pains nor expense in staging this play in the most elaborate style. In the first place there is an environment in "Freckles" which very few plays possess; chances for scenic investiture amazingly natural and picturesque; and when it is understood that Delamater has brought it up to the highest standard of stage production, both from a scenic point of view and by means of a most competent cast, there is a double assurance of merit. Those who have loved the nameless wait for his manly spirit, his light wit, Irish lore, and his beautiful songs; and who reverence "The Swamp Angel" for her beauty and her chaste, womanly character, will meet no disappointment in the play. And that's why "Freckles" is proving still a greater success as a play even than the novel which has been read by over a million souls. At the Auditorium, Saturday matinee and night.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel Backache or Bladder troubles you—Salts is fine for Kidneys.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often set irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night. To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

AGED COUPLE ASPHYXIATED BY GAS FUMES

Neighbors not having seen Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Wright of Frazzysburg for several days, an investigation was made late Saturday night and the aged couple was found dead in bed in their home in that village, having been asphyxiated by gas fumes. They have one daughter, Mrs. Joseph Little, residing in Cedar street this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright, who were about 65 years old, resided on a farm near Frazzysburg. Late Saturday afternoon and evening, neighbors in the vicinity of their home, noticed that the stock on the farm was becoming very noisy, as if they had not been fed for several days. Then it was remembered that no one had seen the aged couple since last Thursday. Nothing was thought of this, however, as it was supposed that they had come to Newark to visit their daughter.

The animals continued their melody of calls for food and Mr. John McLain, who resides on an adjoining farm, determined to go over to the home of Mr. Wright, and see if he had not made some provision for feed for the stock. He found no feed, however, and looking in the window of the Wright home saw a fire burning brightly. Fearing something wrong he forced in a door and on going up stairs found the aged people dead in their bed.

The house was filled with gas fumes, and several plants in the windows were fairly cooked. The door-knobs were so hot, that it was impossible to touch them. On retiring Mr. and Mrs. Wright had left a gas stove on the lower floor burning brightly and had left the hall door up stairs open. An investigation showed that soot and mortar had sifted down that chimney, until the flue was closed up and forced the fumes back in the house.

Mrs. Little was notified at once and left with her husband for Frazzysburg. A double funeral was held on Monday morning at 10 o'clock at the Methodist church, Rev. Samuel Bergum of Granville, officiating. Interment was made in the Frazzysburg cemetery.

POISONS THAT IRRITATE

When the delicate machinery of the body is not working harmoniously, poisons are retained that should be expelled. These may accumulate in the tissues and cause irritation. Should this irritation affect joints or muscles you have rheumatism; if a nerve becomes inflamed you have neuralgia.

But if the system is kept toned up with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and no body poisons are retained, foods that once distressed you will be harmless, exposure will bring no rheumatism and neuralgia and even germ diseases need hardly be dreaded.

The lowering of the tone of the system which results from this blood is easy to recognize. Weakness is always present, a tendency to nervous and fatigue easily, ringing in the ears, black spots passing before the eyes, weak back, dizziness, wakefulness and unrefreshing sleep. These conditions Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will correct.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills build up the blood and strengthen the nerves. In this way the general health is improved, the appetite increases, and new ambition and energy developed.

These pills are sold by all druggists, send to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for free book "Building Up the Blood."

MAIL CARRIER UNCONSCIOUS WHEN FOUND

Frank Horton, Who Serves Patrons On Granville Route Suffers Apoplectic Stroke.

Frank Horton, 75 years old, mail carrier on rural route No. 2 out of Granville, is in a dangerous condition following a stroke of apoplexy which he suffered Saturday afternoon. His unconscious body was found in his vehicle just outside of Granville, where his faithful horse had pulled up at the side of the road when the guiding hand of his master no longer held the reins.

Horton made his usual trip Saturday and was on his way back to the postoffice in the village when he was seized with the dangerous malady. When he did not appear at the post office at the usual time, his friends became alarmed at his absence and started a search for him. The hunt lasted but a short time as his wagon was found near the limits of the village. He was unconscious.

He was removed from the wagon and carried to his home where a physician attended him. His condition, which was unchanged Monday is regarded as critical.

POLICE THINK ONE DIAMOND THIEF HAS BEEN RECOGNIZED

The Columbus police department has sounded a general alarm for the arrest of "Wild Bill," a Toledo crook, who is believed to be one of four people who stole $1,200 worth of diamonds from a Columbus jewelry after breaking the plate glass of the show window with a paving block. "Wild Bill" is believed to be the individual who came to Newark and had a local physician dress cuts on his hand and arm, caused when he fell against broken edges of the window glass. From description given by the physician and others who claim to have seen the man, he is believed to be a well known crook with headquarters in Toledo.

SAN FRANCISCO CITY EMPLOYEES SENT TO NEWARK

It is expected that the delivery of cars to the city will begin next August and that the 100 cars ordered will be ready in November.

Addition to Cash Prizes Made in the Advocate's Better Health Contest

The Advocate's prize offer, announced in the edition of Saturday afternoon, calling for suggestions on better sanitary conditions in Newark, appears to have struck the popular chord that might be expected from such announcement. Comments were to be heard on all sides and The Advocate has received a number of personal expressions in which this paper is commended for becoming champion of public health.

No more thorough appreciation seems to come from any source, however, than that in a letter received by The Advocate Monday from Dr. Robert G. Paterson, secretary of the Ohio Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, with headquarters in Columbus. Dr. Paterson, as secretary of the organization, not only commends the plan inaugurated by The Advocate but volunteers to add $10 to the first prize offered by The Advocate, and $5 each to the second and third prizes.

Dr. Paterson's letter, including ten original suggestions for better health conditions in Newark, follows in full. He is a man thoroughly skilled in public health movements. He expresses the hope that the use of his suggestions by contestants will not be prohibited. Entrants in the Advocate's Better Health contest need not hesitate if they find that Dr. Paterson has hit upon several of their foremost thoughts for suggestion in the contest.

It is not unlikely that there will be one or two—maybe more—like suggestions submitted by every contestant.

Here's the letter from the Ohio Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis:

Editor Advocate, Dear Sir:—I note in this evening's issue of the Newark Advocate that you have begun "Better Health Contest" offering prizes for the ten most practical suggestions for the improvement of sanitary conditions in your city.

In my opinion your contest is unique. Its value to the community is beyond estimate. Any improvement in sanitary conditions in Newark will help to reduce the number of deaths from tuberculosis. I am so convinced of this that as Secretary of the Ohio Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, I desire to add $10.00 to the first prize of $15.00 which you offer; $5.00 to the second prize of $10.00 and $5.00 to the third prize and you may draw upon me for this amount at any time before the close of the contest.

While I cannot enter your contest I should like to take the liberty of making some suggestions which are the result of several years experience in tuberculosis work over the state.

1. That spitting on the sidewalks of the city be prohibited by ordinance and enforced by the city policemen and officers of the board of health.
2. That common drinking cups in all public places be replaced by sanitary drinking fountains.
3. That advanced cases of tuberculosis be properly cared for in a hospital according to law.
4. That visiting nurses be employed as provided by law.
5. That all streets be sprinkled before sweeping.
6. That physical supervision of school children should be regular and continuous.
7. That all four-stuffs offered for sale to the public be covered or screened.
8. That alleys be kept as free from rubbish as streets.
9. That physicians report all cases of tuberculosis to the health officer as required by law.
10. That the Board of Health have enough money to make a special fight against the "Great White Plague."

As my interest in the tuberculosis

Names of judges will be announced soon.

Residents of Newark will have an opportunity of seeing the new state "movies" which will be shown here this week in connection with the public health exhibit.

The educational value of moving pictures has long been recognized, and is emphasized in the work along this line that is being done by the state board of health. The moving pictures which will be shown here at the public health exhibit in the Y. M. C. A. building, commencing Wednesday, January 28, will illustrate the lectures which will be given every night while the exhibit is here by experts on public health subjects, sent to Newark by the state board.

The state is now using seven specially prepared films, as follows: "On the Trail of the Germ," "The Visiting Nurse," "The Man who learned," "Summer Babies," "Hope," "Toothache" and "The Error of Omission."

"Summer Babies," for instance, shows the work of the visiting nurse in the congested sections of Chicago, where the department of health saves the lives of hundreds of babies every summer through free milk and ice stations, and through baby vents.

One of the most thrilling films is "The Price of Human Life," which was produced by Thomas A. Edison in cooperation with the Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis. It shows how thousands of consumptives lose their lives annually by taking fake cures for tuberculosis. It tells the story in a graphic manner. The action involves a wealthy proprietor of a drug concern which manufactures one of these fakes, and a tenement girl who is wasting her life taking his medicine. The daughter of the manufacturer becomes interested in the tenement girl, and finally, everything ends happily.

The film "Hope" tells a thrilling story of a campaign to build a tuberculosis hospital. "Toothache" is self explanatory and is presented to call attention to the imperative demand of dental hygiene.

These "movies" are not dreary or hackneyed, but are produced by first-class actors and although they incidentally carry a powerful sermon, the interest is not sacrificed in the least.

The experiment of carrying on public health work through the medium of the "movies" is drawing attention all over the country and from the number of inquiries received at the office of the state board of health in Columbus, it is believed that the plan will be carried into other states.

action on the resignation before the regular meeting of the board a week from Tuesday night. He declared that as yet he had no information as to who would be the likely successor of Mr. Dewey as a member or as clerk of the board. W. S. Halatz clerk preceding Mr. Dewey, served in that capacity in the last regular meeting of the board.

William E. Miller, who is one of the members of the legislative committee of the Ohio State Association of School Board Members, announced Monday that he will be present at the sessions of the association to be held in Columbus Thursday and Friday, marking the seventeenth annual meeting of the organization. Superintendent of Public Schools Hawkins likely will attend also. Whether any other members of the Newark board expect to attend could not be learned Monday.

Chief among the matters of consideration by the association is a discussion of the proposed changes in the school code, as developed from the school survey congress in Columbus recently.

The Business Outlook.
Here's something that's worth reading and is commended to the prophets of disaster who have been doing some wailing, all of this in the way of announcement referring to conditions in this part of the country where iron and steel tell the tale:
Fourteen hundred employees of the Standard Sanitary Manufacturing company's plant, of Woods Run, Pa., went back to work Monday morning after having been idle since December 31.
At the same time almost 3,000 employees of the Standard company in other parts of the country went back to work.
Six mills in the No. 2 department of the Allegheny Steel Company at Brackenridge, Pa., resumed operation Tuesday.
The upper plant of the American Sheet and Tin Plate company, at Brackenridge, Pa., began work Monday after having been closed down several weeks. It is expected that the lower plant, now operating two thirds capacity, will operate to full capacity in three weeks.
The West Penn Steel Company, at Brackenridge, will spend $175,000 in improvements.
The Tarentum Business association is trying to secure a Tarentum site for the Structural Tube & Steel Works backed by Pittsburgh capital, which will employ 500 men.
What better news could be asked in a single day from one field where the production and consumption of iron and steel is so great as that of the concerns here mentioned?

Colonel Goethals has secured a lead over the Cucaracha slide, and there is now a channel of 30 feet depth through the Culebra cut. If the slide should not accelerate meanwhile, so that the earth would fill up the cut faster than the dredges could get it out, Colonel Goethals will run a steamer through in April. All canal prognostications are postulated on an "if," and as long as there shall be clay on the slides of Cucaracha and other neighboring mountains there are going to be slides. Of course, the possibility of opening the canal, and keeping it open, to navigation is beyond question; and the slides will merely be annoyances and are not to be regarded as obstructions. The Suez Canal is being constantly dredged, and occasionally a vessel is caught there and held on a sand bar for a little while. Nothing more serious need be feared in the Panama Canal.

The crops for 1913 brought more money than ever before, and it is not believed the middlemen and distributors got more than 95 per cent of it.

Jan. 26 in American History.
1780—General Washington publicly reprimanded General Benedict Arnold for trivial offenses, as directed by a court martial. The reprimand was in fact a eulogy of "one of our most valued commanders."
1863—General Joseph Hooker was appointed commander of the Federal Army of the Potomac.
1907—Rev. Henry Martin Field, clergyman and author, former editor of the New York Evangelist, died; born 1822.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.
Evening stars: Mars, Saturn. Morning stars: Venus, Jupiter. A brilliant belt of winter constellations stretches over head from the northwest to the southeast horizon. Low in the northwest, Vega shines brilliantly about 8 p. m. Low in the southeast at the same hour, Sirius is conspicuous, between, along the Milky way, Orion, Taurus, Perseus, Auriga, Cassiopeia and Cetus.

On Second Thought
Buckeye Lake—Water, water everywhere and not a drop to drink.
Tank Brewery, who used to be dramatic critic on an Ohio newspaper, says anything can happen once. To prove his assertion Mr. Beverly cites the case of a New York manager who once called him up and thanked him for the notice given his show.
The negro minstrel probably is the poorest imitation of his race.
If money were the only thing that talked, there would be mighty little for the newspapers to print.
The average man's vision necessarily is narrow. Buck Killy says the only good thing about the Chinese is that they do not get their hair cut on Saturday night.
The trouble with the man who shaves himself with a safety razor is that he considers the matter of sufficient importance to warrant him in making a full and complete confession.

The Rural Mail.
A fierce and bitter storm's abroad, it is a bleak midwinter day, and slowly o'er the frozen sod the postman's pony picks its way.
The postman and his horse are cold, but fearlessly they face the gale; though storms increase a hundred-fold, the farmer folk must have their mail. The hours drag on, the lonely road grows rougher with each mile that's past, the weary pony feels its load, and staggers in the shrieking blast. But man and horse strive on the more; they never learned such word as fail; though tempest beat and torrents pour, the farmer folk must have their mail. At night the pony, to its shed, drags on its cold, exhausted frame; and after supper, to his bed the wearied postman does the same. Tomorrow brings the same old round, the same exhausting, thankless grind; the journey over frozen ground, the facing of the bitter wind. The postman does a hero's stunt to earn his scanty roll of kale; of all the storms he bears the brunt—the farmer folk must have their mail!

A STITCH IN TIME
Newark People Should not Neglect Their Kidneys.
No kidney ailment is unimportant. Don't overlook the slightest backache or urinary frequency. Nature may be warning you of approaching dropsy, gravel or Bright's disease. Kidney disease is seldom fatal if treated in time, but neglect may pave the way. Don't neglect a lame or aching back another day. Don't ignore dizzy spells, irregular or discolored urine, headaches, weariness or depression. If you feel you need kidney help begin using the reliable, time-tried remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills. For 50 years, Doan's have been found effective. Endorsed by Newark people.
Mrs. Charles Dudgeon, 433 West Church St., Newark, O., says: "One of the family suffered a good deal from kidney weakness and backache. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from A. F. Crayton & Co.'s Drug Store, brought great relief."

Reform Measures May Produce Greater Evils
By DAVID KINLEY, President American Economic Association
MAN is so constituted that when he feels the evils of an existing system he is likely to adopt measures of reform which will produce evils as great as those he is seeking to remedy.
THAT DANGER EXISTS NOW. WE NEED TO LOOK VERY CLOSELY AT THE TENDENCY TOWARD THE EXTENSION OF THE AUTHORITY OF THE GOVERNMENT INTO THE DETAILS OF OUR ECONOMIC LIFE. THE PRINCIPLE OF COMPETITION, THE SYSTEM OF ECONOMIC LIBERALISM, HAS BEEN TOO VALUABLE TO THE PROGRESS OF MANKIND TO BE GIVEN UP ALTOGETHER, FOR COMPETITION HAS BEEN A DEVELOPING FORCE, EVEN IF IT HAS FAILED SOMEWHAT AS A CONTROLLING ONE. THE MOTIVE POWER TO ACTION IS OF MORE IMPORTANCE IN THE LONG RUN THAN THE REGULATION OF ACTION.
Aside from industries that are clearly MONOPOLISTIC BY NATURE, the whole aim of government interference should be to establish conditions which will induce healthy competition.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR
Try This! Mix Sage Tea and Sulphur and Brush It Through Your Hair, Taking One Strand at a Time.
When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home, is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning, all gray hair disappears and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.
Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger. Agents, Hall's Drug Store.

YOU should know the possibilities of communicating disease. The best way to learn, and be in a position to protect yourself and your family, is to visit the Ohio State Public Health Exhibit while it is in this city and see this large standard—which is one of many. In fact there are many reasons why you should not miss the Public Health Exhibit while it is here, or the free lectures which are given nightly in connection.

Readers' View Point
Editor Advocate:—
The proposed "Health Exhibit" which is to be inaugurated in Newark this week by our State Board of Health should be most heartily welcomed by all of us; for I have no doubt these expert officials can tell us many things we ought to know concerning both the cure and prevention of disease.
In addition to all the other information and good counsel they may offer us, I hope they will preach and proclaim the gospel of pure air in our ears with due emphasis and earnestness. I hope they will tell us that our court-rooms ought to be ventilated in cold weather as well as in warm weather. I hope they will tell us that our public and private offices should be ventilated, that our auditoriums and lecture rooms and all places of public assemblage should be ventilated. I hope they will instruct our various church janitors that churches should always be ventilated, so that worshipping congregations will not have to poison their bodies by breathing one another's breath over and over while refreshing their souls and renewing their spiritual strength from Sunday to Sunday.
Among the half dozen or more church buildings that have been erected in Newark during the last few years only one—the M. E. church in the West end—is provided with scientific ventilators; and the Episcopal church is the only one of the older churches that is so provided. In all the other churches, so far as I know, the congregation gets no fresh air in cold weather except what comes through the doors and windows and precious little that way.
To the credit of the preachers however, let it be said that the people as a general thing are kept awake during the services, and are so interested in the songs and sermons and prayers—blissful ignorance—that they realize no need of health-giving oxygen.
I hope these officials will exhort physicians to see to it in all cases that whatever other remedies may be prescribed, their patients are supplied with fresh air by day and by night so that mother nature may exercise her healing power over the various maladies to which human flesh seems to be subject.
I hope they will commend our school board for placing modern ventilators in our new schoolhouses for verily all school rooms should be "fresh air schools" every minute that "school keeps."
I hope these medical officials will instruct our housewives that sitting rooms and parlors as well as bedrooms ought to be faithfully ventilated during the long winter evenings, especially when there is a "house full of company." How many of our homes are thus faithfully ventilated during the winter season the Lord only knows—and he doesn't know very many!
Finally, whatever remedies they may give us for contagious and infectious diseases, I hope they will tell us that the greatest "germicides" of all are light and Air and Water with some savor of Christian Science principle. For the mouth of Mother Nature hath spoken it.
M. R. SCOTT.

BORDER BALLAD.
March, march, Ettrick and Teviotdale!
Why the de'il dinna ye march forward in order?
March, march, Eskdale and Liddesdale!
All the Blue Bonnets are over the border!
Many a banner spread
Flutters above your head,
Many a crest that is famous in story!
Mount and make ready, then,
Sons of the mountain glen!
Fight for the queen and our old Scottish glory!
Come from the hills where your hirsels are grazing;
Come from the glen of the buck and the roe;
Come to the crag where the beacon is blazing;
Come with the buckler, the lance and the bow.
Trumpets are sounding;
War steeds are bounding.
Stand to your arms and march in good order.
England shall many a day
Tell of the bloody fray
When the Blue Bonnets came over the border.
—Sir Walter Scott.

The great importance of bread in your household justifies precaution to insure the utmost nourishment. Only by taking pains in selecting the flour can you be sure that the bread you bake for your family reaches the highest point of food efficiency.
Try this scientific test for quality: Aristos Flour, when pressed in the hands, falls loosely apart. Flour that stays in lumps is too moist. Beware of the flour that feels too smooth and powdery when rubbed between the fingers. In Aristos Flour notice that the individual particles are vaguely distinguishable. Aristos "crunches" a little between your teeth—and the taste is sweet and nutty with no suggestion of acidity.

SIMPLE WAY TO END DANDRUFF
Stop Falling Hair and Itching Scalp.
There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then, you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need) apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.
By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve, and entirely destroy, every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.
You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.
If you value your hair, you should get rid of dandruff at once, for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everybody notices it.

IS CHARGED WITH VIOLATION OF THE WHITE SLAVE LAW

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Marion, O., Jan. 26.—Charged with violation of the Mann white slave law, Edgar Myler, 24, collector of Evansville, Ind., was turned over to a federal officer from Toledo here today. New Year's eve, Myler, it is charged, eloped from Evansville with 17-year-old Clara Haase, who says he promised daily to marry her. Myler deserted the girl here, leaving an unpaid board bill. He was arrested at Coshocton on a charge of defrauding a boarding house keeper and returned. Miss Haase's brother arrived this morning and charged him with white slavery. Myler has a wife and child at Tiffin.

It is quite possible for a man to have his ups and downs and still be on the level.

It is not a pretty story at all that the special Universal Film "Traffic in Souls" tells at the Auditorium theatre but what is more to the point, it is an interesting story and one which causes the spectator deep thought, and careful consideration.

There are six reels and each one is fraught with as much interest as its predecessor. The workings of the white slavers in the cities are shown, how foreign girls coming to this country for the first time disappear and are never heard of again, how country girls are met at a station and ostensibly directed to their destination, only to find their lives in a house of iniquity.

A pleasing love story relieves the tenseness of the story, and the majority of the scenes are well placed. The film is very clear, and the climaxes are so well developed that at no time, was there any lack of interest, on the part of the audience.

This special film is playing all the large cities, and just finished a run of three weeks at the Southern Theatre in Columbus. It is a picture with a lesson, and will be seen at the Auditorium tonight, and Tuesday and Wednesday.

Railroad Manager Who Settled With His Men

Clifford S. Sims, vice-president and general manager of the Delaware and Hudson, a railroad which is little heard of outside the east, but is of considerable importance, has been forced to settle with his 5,000 employees who went on strike the other day. The company capitulated and restored the men to work, agreeing also to every condition the union men made. It was one of the most quickly settled large strikes in the history of railroading.

After a year of negotiating 5,000 men, including engineers, firemen, conductors, trainmen, and telegraphers, walked out when the company finally refused to restore to duty an engineer and a fireman charged with disobedience of orders. The men said they had refused to break a rule of the company at the direction of a minor official. The road was tied up at once and it moved few trains. The officials appealed to the National Board of Arbitrators, but the next day Mr. Sims met a committee of the unionists and signed an agreement. Immediately service on the road was restored fully. A strike, which might have been disastrous to employers and employed, lasted less than forty-eight hours.

The Courts

Case Dismissed.
A neighborhood argument, in which twenty-one witnesses were subpoenaed from Etna, Pataskala, Ottville and vicinity, was dismissed Monday by Magistrate Scott, after twelve witnesses had been examined. The court declared there was insufficient evidence to substantiate charges in the affidavit. Attorney A. S. Mitchell represented the prosecution, and Kibler & Kibler were attorneys for the defendant.

Justice Scott's Court.
If a mule has a sore neck the humane officers may take him or her, as the case may be, off the streets. Such is the decision of Magistrate Scott in the celebrated "John D. Rockefeller" mule case, in which the owner sought to replevin the animal after Humane Officer Harris had taken possession of him—the mule, not the owner.

He was seventeen and a half hands high—the mule—and rambled by nature. It is said. The case was commenced in court under Magistrate Horton, deceased, and had nine continuances. L. B. Wilson is the owner of the mule, and Kibler & Kibler were his attorneys—Wilson's. Phil R. Smythe was attorney for Officer Harris.

Marriage Licenses.
Daniel A. Mott, 56, laborer, Newark, and Mary Margaret Nash, 39, Newark.

RUNAWAY GIRLS WANDERED ABOUT FOR TWO NIGHTS

In Pitiable Condition When Found Near Granville Sunday—Returned to Institution.

Dolly Blair, 20 and Anna Chase 20, two of the three girls who escaped from the institution for feeble minded youth at Columbus last week, are back in the dormitory of the home after a dramatic experience lasting the better part of a week.

The two girls were captured Sunday morning by Marshall Joe Shipp of Granville in the vicinity of the Welsh Hills where they assert they had spent the night in the open. Both were footsore and weary and were suffering greatly from exposure. An officer from the Columbus institution, notified Sunday morning of the capture, arrived in Granville Sunday afternoon and took the girls into custody. He returned with them to Columbus immediately.

According to the story told by the two girls to Granville people, they wandered all day Friday and Saturday in search of work. Judging from the description of the country through which they passed, the girls walked east from Newark and spent Friday night in the vicinity of Hanover. They could not explain how they reached Granville from Hanover Saturday morning, except that they walked steadily.

At Granville, they wandered from store to store until well in the afternoon, when they again took up the search for work in private families. Marshall Shipp learned of the presence in the village but was unable to locate them Saturday afternoon. It is apparent that they soon abandoned the village and took up their quest for work in the country near the village.

Sunday morning Marshall Shipp began a systematic search for the girls, which included the use of the telephone, by which he reached points in the country surrounding the village. He soon discovered that the two girls answering to the description given him, had been seen north of the village in the vicinity of Welsh Hills.

Another call revealed the presence of the girls in a field near the home called and the officer asked that they be detained until he could reach them.

The girls were taken into custody and confined in the town hall while awaiting the arrival of the Columbus officer. The girls were in a pitiable condition from exposure after sleeping in the open for two nights. Their clothing was wet and torn, their shoes soaked, and both were on the verge of physical collapse.

Their condition soon became known to Granville people and the good women of the village came at once to their aid. Warm clothing was provided for both and Marshall Shipp provided a nourishing meal of warm food. By the time the Columbus officer reached the village, the girls had, in a measure, recovered from their harrowing experience and entered no protest against returning to the institution from which they eloped last week.

Messiah Was to Be of David's Lineage. God's Typical Kingdom—Overturned. 606 B. C.—One Long Line of World-Empires—"The Times of the Gentiles"—Israel's "Seven Times" of Chastisement—"The Two Periods" of Chastisement—About to Expire Now. The Fifth Universal Empire—Jerusalem and Messiah.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 25.—Pastor Russell yesterday afternoon in the I. B. S. A. Temple, corner of Prospect and East 22nd Street, personally conducted the opening exhibition in this city of the Photo-Drama of Creation. This Drama is acknowledged by art critics to be by far the finest production of moving pictures and slides ever presented, and is to be shown, free to the public, in all cities and lands throughout the world, under the auspices of the International Bible Students Association, of which Pastor Russell is President.

In New York City, in his new $500,000 Temple, two weeks ago, Pastor Russell presented the Drama for the first time to houses crowded from pit to dome. Last Sunday in the famous Music Hall in Cincinnati he personally conducted the opening of the Photo-Drama of Creation there.

The Photo-Drama of Creation is produced in conjunction with remarkably clear photographic discourses, which have behind them the forty years of Bible study by New York's famous Pastor. By some process never before attained the photographs used in this production have been relieved of the metallic sound altogether, thus producing the very finest oratorical effects. It is the wonder today of talking-machine dealers in the metropolis. The voice is resonant, clear, full and restful, and audiences rarely detect it as the voice of the talking machine.

The exhibition is in three parts: Part I traces the creation of the earth and of man, its king—then his fall into sin and his death-punishment, the first promises of complete deliverance from the penalty, and the Deluge and its causes on to Moses' time. Part II points us through the types to Messiah, the great Emancipator of the death-stricken race, and the worldwide blessings His soon-to-be established Kingdom will bring. It introduces us to the Heavenly Logos, who became the man Christ Jesus. It also shows and explains His sacrificial work and His unwavering faithfulness in fulfilling the prophecies concerning Himself, and how His miracles picture the restoration of mankind during His Second presence and reign.

Part III traces not only the sufferings of Christ, the Head, but also those of the Church, His Body, preparatory to their exaltation and consequent glorious work of blessing the non-elect for a thousand years—"whoever will."

Pastor Russell yesterday forenoon discussed that feature of the Production of the Photo-Drama that relates to the overthrow of Israel's typical kingdom and the foretold re-establishment of it at the end (now due) of the "seven (symbolic) times" of chastisement at the hands of Him whose right it is.

His text and discourse follow: "Remove the diadem, and take off the crown: this shall not be the same. . . . I will overturn, overturn, overturn it—until He come whose right it is: and I will give it unto Him." (Ezekiel 21:26, 27.) He said:

God established the Jewish nation as His representative nation, or kingdom, in the world, with the understanding that in some manner and at some time that nation would be the channel of Divine blessing to all the families of the earth, in harmony with the original Oath-bound promise made to Abraham. After a precarious existence of nearly six centuries the star of Jewish Empire set, and has not risen since.

The particular date at which the typical Kingdom passed away is clearly marked in the Scriptures. The solidity of the Empire in the hands of King

David, and his son, King Solomon, was lost in its division in the days of King Solomon's successor. Nevertheless, in harmony with the Divine prediction, the royal line continued in the tribe of Judah; as it is written, "The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come."—Genesis 49:10.

The Lord's covenant with King David was that One from his seed should be the great King over the more glorious Kingdom of God, when it should be established. In other words, Messiah would be of David's lineage. The royal family of David's line had a precarious course for several centuries after King Solomon's death until Zedekiah, the last king of Judah. Of him the Divine declaration was, "And thou, profane and wicked prince of Israel, whose day is come when iniquity shall have an end, thus saith the Lord God, Remove the diadem, and take off the crown: this shall not be the same. . . . I will overturn, overturn, overturn it: and it shall be no more, until He come whose right it is; and I will give it unto Him."

That statement was made just prior to Israel's captivity to Babylon. And the crown and the scepter have been overturned ever since, and will continue so to be until Messiah Himself, at His Second Advent, shall take the Throne as the antitypical Son of David. No king of David's line has been in power for even a moment since the overthrow of King Zedekiah. True, Israel had the Maccabean kings under Gentile suzerainty, and later they had the House of Herod. But neither of these lines was of the House of David; indeed, neither was Jewish at all. King Zedekiah lost his crown in 606 B. C.; and surely the kingdom has been well described as "overturned, overturned"; and it is still overturned, because the foreordained time has not yet come—although it is near.

"Times of the Gentiles." There were Gentile kingdoms in the world long before Israel became a monarchy. Yet God recognized only Israel and entered into covenant relationship with no other nation. But as soon as the verdict of our text was given against Israel, to hold until Messiah's Reign, then Divine providence recognized Gentile governments, although not in the same way in which Israel had been recognized—not as kingdoms of God, but as kingdoms of the Gentiles.

Nor were all Gentile nations recognized, but one great line of World-Empires of several dynasties which, so to speak, were given temporary or leasehold privileges covering the period of the overturning of Israel's crown—until the time for Messiah's Kingdom. Indeed, in portraying these kingdoms and their leases of power, it is particularly shown that their dominion will terminate absolutely when that of Messiah will begin.

Furthermore, Moses prophesied the chastisement of Israel, and in symbolic numbers told that it would last Seven Times. (Leviticus 26:18, 21, 24, 28.) The lease of Gentile Times, or years, is likewise Seven Times. Both began to count at the same date. Hence both will terminate simultaneously. When the lease of Gentile dominion ends, Messiah's Kingdom will by right begin its Reign; and Israel, "Jacob," will be associated with Messiah's Empire as His earthly people—Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and the Prophets being made princes in all the earth as promised.

The Prophet Daniel's Foreview.

God through the Prophet Daniel supplies us two pictures of the Seven Times of Gentile domination of the world. One of these pictures was given by vision to King Nebuchadnezzar, who overthrew the crown of King Zedekiah. Properly, it gives the worldly view of Gentile governments. The whole period was represented by a glorious image, whose head was of gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass, his legs of iron, his feet of iron and clay mixed. Given the pointer that Nebuchadnezzar's kingdom represented the head of gold, any school boy could show that the next Universal Empire was Medo-Persia, the third Greece and the fourth Rome—the feet representing Rome ecclesiastical, with her daughters dominating Europe today.

We cannot here go into details except to note that "in the days of these kings" represented by the toes, the God of Heaven promised to set up His Kingdom—Messiah's Kingdom. This is symbolized as a stone cut out of a mountain, which struck the image on its feet and demolished it completely. Then the stone became a great Mountain, or Kingdom, and filled the whole earth—Messiah's Empire.—Dan. 2:31-45.

Picture as Beauty.

The vision of Nebuchadnezzar represented Gentile domination as gorgeous. But when a vision was given to Daniel himself it showed matters in a different light. All Gentile kingdoms to him were pictured as beastly. The golden head of Nebuchadnezzar's vision, picturing the Babylonian Empire, was represented as a ferocious lion; the Medo-Persian Empire as a bear; the Grecian Empire as a leopard; and the Roman Empire of the Caesars as a non-script, great and terrible beast, ferocious and destructive, as the pages of history corroborate.

In contrast with these Gentile governments, the coming Kingdom of Messiah was represented as human. "One like unto the Son of Man" took dominion under the whole heavens, in the name of God and as His Kingdom. The beastly forms of government disappeared, but that of the Son of Man endured—accomplishing to the full the Divine purposes.—Daniel 7:1-14.

Where Are We Now?

As before suggested, the key to our problem lies in the Seven Times—the period of Israel's chastisement and that of Gentile lease of power. The measurement in both cases begins at the time of King Zedekiah's dethronement, 606 B. C. A Time is one year; hence the Seven Times are seven years—yet not literal years, but symbolic; and, as God declared through the Prophet, and fulfilled, each day is symbolic of a year. (Ezekiel 4:6.) The year is lunar—360 days; hence each of the Seven Times is 360 years; and the Seven Times equal 2520 years. Now note that these Seven Times are almost expired; and hence Zionism is the watchword of all Jews who are trusting still in the Divine promises.

Reckoning from the date of the dethronement of King Zedekiah, we have the date 1915 A. D. This indicates that in 1915 Messiah's invisible, spiritual Kingdom will be in power. The lease of power to the Gentiles will then have expired, and Israel's disfavor will be at an end. This fact implies an awful time or trouble at that date, as foretold by the Prophet Daniel and also by our Lord.—Daniel 12:1.

The great trouble of 1915 will suffice for all time, as says the Prophet. (Psalm 46:9.) There will be no more war. Then the "princes" of Israel will have dictatorial powers, backed up by the spiritual Kingdom—just what the world needs, but what it dare not trust to any imperfect men under the present reign of Sin and Death.

Jerusalem and Messiah.

The time has therefore come for the message of Isaiah 40:1, 2 to be given to God's ancient people. The time has come for the fulfillment of the highest ideals of Zionism! He that blesteth Israel shall be blessed of God! He that curseth Israel shall be cursed of God! Let us all encourage God's ancient people to go up and possess their land, as Cyrus did in a figure long ago! It is not our thought to encourage all Jews to return to Palestine. Many of them are better off where they are at present. Only those who have faith in the precious promises do we encourage to go now. Gradually their numbers will increase, as faith in the promises of God returns to the Jewish heart.

But there is a work in which every Jew should have a share. If favorably situated, and unready to go personally, they should go by proxy—they should put plenty of money into the hands of the Zionist Manager at Jerusalem. He should be enabled to assist every worthy son of Abraham feeling from Russian persecution. He should be prepared to advance money to every settler to purchase every foot of land in Palestine that is offered for sale. He should be enabled to supply all with tools, etc. He should have a free hand to do exploits in the name of God and of His Chosen People.

Zionism will prosper, whether or not. Messiah's Kingdom will be set up. But who will have the honor of having manifested his faith by his works and by his money? The love of money is a root of all evil amongst all people, and the Jew has not escaped it. Both Jews and Christians need the exhortation not to worship the Golden Calf, but the true God. I can thus reprove and exhort Jew, Gentile and Christian the more freely because it is well known that I never solicit money for myself or the work entrusted to me by the Lord—not even Church collections—not even insinuations that money is scarce and desirable. I do, however, exhort Jews in prosperous circumstances to bless their own hearts by helping their own countrymen to fulfil the holy prophecies.

God's Great Kingdom at Hand.

The fault of Christendom has been the rejection of the Divine Plan and the acceptance instead of a human plan of salvation. The Church, it was asserted, was to convert the world for Jesus and present it to Him as a trophy. Alas, we have not been able to convert ourselves, which is the particular work the Master gave us to do! Greater humility would have shown us our folly long ago.

All through the Old Testament God's promises abound, telling all who have ears to bear of the glorious Reign of Messiah and of the success of His Kingdom—that the result shall be that "every knee shall bow and every tongue confess, to the glory of God"; that "the eyes of the blind shall be opened and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped."

We remember the prophecies which picture earthly governments and show us their termination and the establishment of the Kingdom of Heaven on their ruins. We remember the Jubilee picture repeated by the Israelites every fiftieth year, proclaiming liberty and restoration of property for the people and typifying restitution of all that has been lost through sin and that is to be restored through Messiah's Kingdom.

Bible students are more and more coming to see that the Gospel Age is the time in which Messiah is selecting from amongst men a saintly class, and is proving and testing their loyalty to God and to righteousness. These are to be Messiah's assistants—"the Bride, the Lamb's Wife." Bible students all know that the New Testament abounds with references to the Kingdom. Nearly all the parables that our Lord gave were in illustration of something connected with the Kingdom or with the class being called out of the world to inherit the spiritual Kingdom as joint-heirs with Messiah. All such know, too, that the Great Teacher proclaimed that Kingdom, and taught His followers to pray for it. "Thy Kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth, as it is done in Heaven."

Bible students all know that the Apostles referred to that Kingdom and pointed the Church to its establishment—the time when the Marriage of the Lamb will take place—the time when God's New Law Covenant with Israel will go into effect—the time when He who scattered Israel will also gather them, and when the Law will go forth from Mount Zion, the Celestial Jerusalem, the capital of the earthly princes. Messiah's Kingdom is just what humanity is coming to realize that it needs. In its establishment, as the Scriptures declare, "the desire of all nations shall come."—Haggai 2:7.

The Scriptures teach that Messiah's Kingdom is not only to bless those living at the time of its establishment, but gradually to awaken the dead from the tomb, and to give all of Adam's race a full opportunity for attaining life everlasting—or death. Indeed, the Bible assures us that eventually the whole world shall receive new life from Messiah, in offset to the life received from Father Adam, forfeited through sin. Thus amongst the various titles of Messiah mentioned by the Prophets is that of "the Everlasting Father."—Isaiah 9:6.

Granville

Granville, Jan. 26.—The Denison Glee club returned from Cleveland Sunday night. A concert was given at Lake Erie College Saturday evening, which was largely attended.

This is the last week of the first semester that regular classes will be held at Denison. The examinations will be held next week starting with Monday and ending Wednesday afternoon.

The history and political science students of Denison will form an organization this week, the purpose of which will be to pursue a more careful conditions of current topics. The upper classes are eligible to membership providing they have 12 points. An hour of A counts two points, an hour of B one and a half, and an hour of C counts one. Sophomores and Freshmen are eligible to attend meetings as associate members.

Marcian Thalberg, the great pianist, was received by a large and enthusiastic audience in the opera house Saturday evening. Later on he warranted the plaudits of the audience by his wonderful mastery of the piano. He played numbers from Bach, Brahms, Rubenstein, Liszt and Chopin in such an easy and entertaining manner that the audience was held in wonder throughout the evening.

Work has commenced on the Denison Dandy Dances, which will be presented some time in March. Albert Akers is chairman of the committee to manage the affair.

Human Procession

January 26th marks the birthday of two of the greatest bishops of the Anglican church. The Rt. Rev. Arthur Foley Winnington Ingram, D. D., Bishop of London, and dean of the chapel royal, will pass his fifty-sixth milestone today, while the Rt. Rev. Daniel Sylvester Tuttle of St. Louis, the presiding bishop of the Protestant Episcopal church of the United States, and the oldest of American-Anglican bishops, in point of service, was born seventy-seven years ago today. Dr. Ingram, who has been Bishop of London since 1901, is the son of a clergyman of the Church of England and of the daughter of an Anglican rector. He became a curate thirty years ago, rector of Bethnal Green in 1895, Canon of St. Paul's Cathedral in 1897, Bishop of Stepney in the same year, and Bishop of London four years later. He is a bachelor, whereby hangs a romance. While Bishop of Stepney, it is said, he fell in love with the beautiful Lady Cynthia Duncombe, a daughter of the Earl of Faversham. Lady Cynthia, who was prominent in charitable works, entertained a great admiration for the young Bishop, and accepted his suit. At that time the Bishop's work was principally among the poor of London's East End, who fairly idolized the Bishop. After a few weeks, in which the good Bishop fairly trod on air, Lady Cynthia decided that she would not be able to give up social life for the career which would face her as the wife of an East End Bishop, and broke off the engagement. Later she married a soldier. The Bishop, now one of the great men of the church, might pick and choose among hundreds of lovely women who would doubtless be willing to share his glory, but he has remained steadfast to the memory of his first love.

IF YOU HAD A NECK AS LONG AS THIS FELLOW, SORE THROAT ALL THE WAY DOWN TONSILINE WORLD QUICKLY RELIEVE IT. 25c and 50c. Beware of cheap imitations.

All his life the Bishop had been an athlete, and last month he issued a challenge to meet anybody of his own age at any sort of game, golf, tennis, cycling, fives and skittles are the Bishop's favorite sports, but he is fond of many others, and it is said, can give a fair account of himself with the gloves.

Dr. Ingram has always been frank in his denunciations of the follies and vices of society, high as well as low, and recently he headed a crusade for the upliftment of the English theatre, which, he declared, had become decadent and immoral.

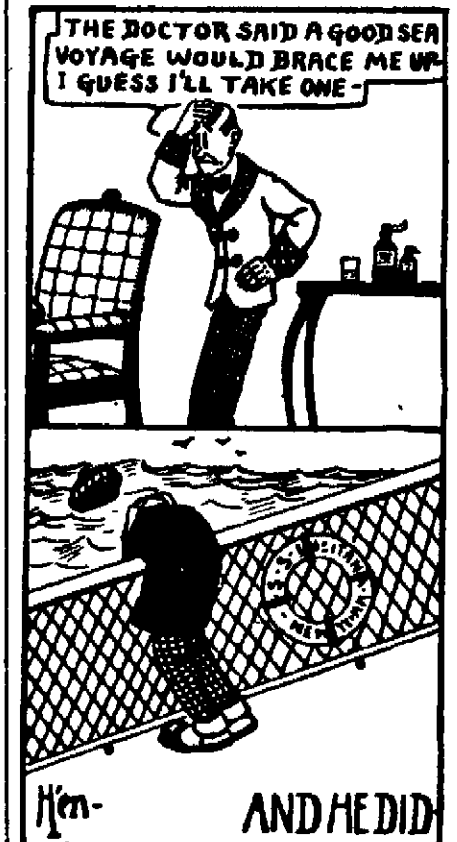

The Rt. Rev. Daniel Sylvester Tuttle, who has held the title of Bishop in the American branch of the Anglican church for forty-seven years, was born at Windham, Greene county, N. Y., January 26, 1837. He graduated from Columbia and the General Theological Seminary. He was ordained a deacon in 1862 and a priest of the Protestant Episcopal church the following year. His first charge was at Morris, N. Y. At the age of thirty he was consecrated missionary bishop of Montana, Utah and Idaho, where he served for nearly a score of years. He was translated to the diocese of Missouri in 1886, and became presiding bishop of the American church in 1903, under that rule which gives to the bishop who has been longest in bishop's orders the work of presiding. The venerable churchman presided over the last Episcopal general convention, held in New York last October.

Samuel Hopkins Adams, author of "The Great American Fraud" and other "exposés" of patent medicines, was born forty-three years ago today, and commenced his journalistic career at the age of twenty as a reporter on the New York Sun.

Sidelights on Matrimony.

"On a camping trip one gets a lot of sidelights on matrimony, doesn't he?" reflected the Bachelor Girl. "That depends upon the party," replied the Bachelor. "Seems to me you would be apt to get more points on love-making, wouldn't you?" He looked at the Bachelor Girl a bit suspiciously.

"That, too, depends upon the party," laughed the Bachelor Girl. "But at any rate, the party I was with liberally disbursed information on matrimony, though probably they didn't know it. It was a surveying party out in the wilds. Some of the men took their wives with them, and some didn't. One of the men whose wife was not along furnished me valuable information upon married life."

"Did he make it seem attractive?" anxiously inquired the Bachelor. "As to the present reality, he didn't. As to what it might promise, he did."

"That sounds interesting. Tell me what happened." "Nothing special happened. It was just the every day conduct of this one man that was an enlightening study. At home, he never does a thing for his wife. If he wants a drink of water, I've actually known him to ask her to bring it to him. And she'll stop her work, no matter what it may be she is doing, and trot and get it for him. She always fixes his bath for him, and she waits on him like a valet, or perhaps one might truthfully say, a slave."

"He's a poor imitation of a man to let her do such things," said the Bachelor wrathfully.

"Personally I think she is responsible for much of his conduct, for she has spoiled him," observed the Bachelor Girl sagely. "But whatever the cause, that is the way he acts at home. But in camp, on what a difference! The woman who ran the camp was accustomed to having men wait on her, not to waiting upon them. And so she took it quite as a matter of course that he would make himself useful. So you constantly heard, 'Jim, fetch me a bucket of water.' 'Jim, I want some wood.' 'Jim, dress the birds.' And Jim would jump and do whatever she asked of him. And he did it pleasantly, too. He wasn't grouchy or ill-natured. He didn't act as if he thought he was being put upon. He seemed to take it as the most normal thing in the world, which proves to me he would do the same for his wife if she let him know she expected it."

"Why don't you tip her off?" laughed the Bachelor. "I have been thinking of it; but after all, she might not thank me. Maybe she would rather wait on him than think he had been cheerfully waiting on some other woman."

BOTHERED BY CATARRH, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA, HEAD OR CHEST COLDS

Try the New External Treatment—Relieves by Inhalation and Absorption No Stomach Dosing.

For years we have been dosing ourselves to cure cold troubles despite the fact that vapor treatments are quicker and do not disturb the stomach. The trouble has been that the old methods of administering these vapors such as vapor lamps, etc., were very cumbersome. Vick's "Vap-O-Rub" Croup and Pneumonia Salve contains Menthol, Thymol, Eucalyptol, Camphor, and Pine Tar, combined by a special process, so that they are vaporized when Vick's is applied to the heat of the body. These vapors open the air passages, loosen the phlegm, and heal the inflamed mucous membrane.

For Catarrh and Head Colds melt a little in a spoon and inhale the vapors. Also apply well up the nostrils. For Asthma and Hay Fever follow the above instructions and also rub well over the spinal column, thus relaxing the nervous tension. For Bronchitis, Sore Throat, and deep chest colds, apply well over chest and throat, first opening the pores by applications of hot wet towels. Then cover with a warm flannel cloth, leaving the covering loose around the neck so the vapors arising may be inhaled all night long. In addition Vick's is absorbed through the pores taking out the tightness and soreness. Three sizes—25c, 50c and $1.00.

NO SALOONS AT BUCKEYE LAKE;
"DRY" VICTORY

Buckeye Lake as a summer resort will be dry as Sahara for the next three years as far as the legal sale of alcoholic refreshment is concerned, as a result of Saturday's local election in Licking township, which resulted in a dry victory. The vote stood 116 dry and 87 wet, giving the dries a majority of 29.

The result of this election forbids the sale of intoxicating liquor at the lake resorts from Avondale to Buckeye Lake Park and it puts out of business the lone saloon, license for which was granted to Harvey Marple, a well known local amusement promoter, who expected to operate a place at the lake next summer.

In past years the saloon business at the lake has flourished and during the past summer eight places were in operation at various points in Licking township along the east shores of the lake.

Saturday's election was quietly conducted there being no disorder or excitement of any kind. The steady rain which fell all day had much to do with the light vote polled. Licking township has a voting strength of 312 and but 210 votes were cast Saturday. When the count was made seven votes were thrown out, not being properly marked.

Licking township was the only subdivision bordering the lake where sale of liquor was permitted and the dry majority returned makes the entire district under the ban of the law as far as the liquor business is concerned.

The campaign before the election was actively conducted by adherents on both sides.

LEGAL TALENT

Most national banks are required to keep a twelve per cent. reserve on deposits subject to check, and five per cent. on time deposits. National banks of Cleveland, Cincinnati and Columbus, reserve cities, are required to maintain 15 per cent. reserves. State banks must keep 15 per cent. reserve. The new bill, consequently makes no reduction of reserves in the three reserve cities of Ohio, and only three per cent. in other sections of the state.

"Every state bank and every national bank shall have power to act as executor, trustee, or administrator of stocks and bonds according to terms of the new bill. Those which engage in this kind of work, must file bond with the state treasurer, as is required now of trust companies acting as executors. They must also get a permit from the state superintendent of banks. A copy of this permit must be filed with any court or individual which appoints a bank executor or trustee, and bond may or may not be required by the court.

National banks have been included in the class allowed to act as executors since the federal comptroller of currency declared the state had power to grant or disallow this power to banks chartered under federal banking laws. Building and loan companies are specifically excluded from the provisions of this bank.

Mr. Davis said today the power of state banks to act as real estate agents will not interfere with membership in the federal reserve banking system. This statement was made on advice of federal authorities.

Home rule for municipalities in deciding questions of saloon regulation, will be asked of Governor Cox this week by representatives of German-American Alliances in Ohio. Presidents of alliances meeting here today decided to ask amendment to the liquor laws so that each community might fix its own hours of closing and other details of the liquor business.

Resolutions were adopted also looking to the organization of a new liberal party to oppose anti-saloon activity in the state. Repeal of the license law is not sought, but modification is asked.

Senator Frank Hillencamp of Lucas county and Representative Herman Fellingner of Cuyahoga county, are members of a committee to present the German-American Alliances petition to the governor.
